

HAVERHILL HIGH SCHOOL
SUMMER READING LIST 2009
Entering Freshman Year

Listed below are the summer reading selections for students entering Grade 9 at Haverhill High School. Choose at least one book and have it read by the start of the school year. An assignment will be given during the first two weeks of school IN ALL ENGLISH CLASSES and this score will be averaged with your first quarter grade. Books can be found at the Haverhill Public Library or at local bookstores. Note: Students may read a book specifically recommended by the librarian in place of one on the list. Select titles are also available in a variety of audio formats for readers who would like to listen to the story while they read.

FICTION:

Monster

Walter Dean Myers

"Monster" is what the prosecutor called 16-year-old Steve Harmon for his supposed role in the fatal shooting of a convenience-store owner. But was Steve really the lookout who gave the "all clear" to the murderer, or was he just in the wrong place at the wrong time?

Angus, Thongs and Full Frontal Snogging* (humor)

Louise Rennison

Fourteen-year-old Georgia Nicolson is just like any other girl her age although she doesn't always see that. She thinks she's ugly, has no boyfriend potential, and believes her parents are a little (or a lot!) on the "naff" side.

Freaky Green Eyes

Joyce Carol Oates

This novel tells the story about a young girl whose life seems to be without any problems. Her father is a very famous football player and her mother is very interested in arts. But during the story the reader learns that being rich is not enough for being happy.

Ironman

Chris Crutcher

Bo Brewster lets his anger get the best of him. He finds himself in Mr. Nak's Anger Management class filled with people who are bullies, future American Gladiators, and people who have problems at home. Bo is training like crazy throughout the school year for Yukon Jack's triathlon. Will Bo crack under the pressure of the race or will he rise to the occasion?

Faerie Wars* (fantasy/sci fi)

Herbie Brennan

Troubled by family problems, Henry finds his life taking a whole new dimension when he and his friend, old Mr. Fogarty, become involved with Prince Pyrgus Malvae who has been sent from the faerie world in order to escape the treacherous Faeries of the Night.

Ender's Game* (fantasy/sci fi)

Orson Scott Card

The tale of the child-hero Ender Wiggling, who must fight a desperate battle against a deadly alien race if mankind is to survive.

Stuck in Neutral

Terry Trueman

Shawn McDaniel, who suffers from severe cerebral palsy and cannot function, relates his perceptions of his life, his family, and his condition, especially as he believes his father is planning to kill him.

Parrot In the Oven

Victor Martinez

Monolo Hernandez lives a difficult life. His father is a drug addict and a drunk. His mother cheats on his father, and his father tried to kill her. His brothers are mean to him. He thinks the only way of getting over all of this is by joining a gang, but he doesn't know if he wants to get into that kind of life.

The Killer's Cousin* (mystery)

Nancy Werlin

After being acquitted of murder, David goes to stay with relatives in Cambridge, Massachusetts, where he finds himself forced to face his past as he learns more about his strange cousin Lily.

The Lovely Bones

Alice Sebold

"My name is Susie Salmon, and I was murdered on December 6, 1973." This riveting line is the beginning of the award-winning book The Lovely Bones by Alice Sebold. Sebold writes this book from the viewpoint of Susie Salmon, who is watching her family from heaven as they try to cope with her murder and go on with their lives.

Son of the Mob* (humor)

Gordon Korman

Seventeen-year-old Vince's life is constantly complicated by the fact that he is the son of a powerful Mafia boss, a relationship that threatens to destroy his romance with the daughter of an FBI agent.

The Gospel According to Larry* (humor)

Janet Tashjian

Josh, a loner-philosopher who wants to make a difference in the world, tries to maintain his secret identity as the author of a web site that is receiving national attention.

Sleeping Freshmen Never Lie

David Lubar

While navigating his first year of high school and awaiting the birth of his new baby brother, Scott loses old friends and gains some unlikely new ones as he hones his skills as a writer.

NON FICTION:

Geeks: How Two Lost Boys Rode the Internet Out of Idaho

Jon Katz

This story is about two teenage geeks. The message is about alienation, redemption and assimilation. Our society nurtures only certain "types" while others "types" may provide the keys to the future of our culture.

Hitler Youth: Growing Up in Hitler's Shadow

Susan Bartoletti

The story of a generation of German young people who devoted all their energy to the Hitler Youth, the propaganda that brought Hitler his power, and the youths that resisted the Nazi movement.

Chinese Cinderella: The True Story of an Unwanted Daughter

Adeline Yen Mah

Adeline Yen Mah's childhood was horrible, and she endured emotional abuse from her stepmother and siblings and neglect from her wealthy banker father. Even though she suffered through extraordinary pain from as far back as she could remember, she still did well in school, excelled in her studies and was popular with her classmates.

The Greatest : Muhammad Ali

Walter Dean Myers

An introduction to Ali's life from his childhood to the present day, focusing on his career and the controversies surrounding him. Both his talent in the boxing ring and his showmanship earned him international fame, while his refusal to accept the stereotypical role of a black athletic star in the 1960s and his membership in the Nation of Islam brought him notoriety.

Tuesdays with Morrie

Mitch Albom

Maybe it was a grandparent, or a teacher, or a colleague. Someone older, patient and wise, who understood you when you were young and searching, helped you see the world as a more profound place, gave you sound advice to help you make your way through it. For Mitch Albom, that person was Morrie Schwartz, his college professor from nearly twenty years ago. He rediscovered Morrie in the last months of the older man's life, and visited with Mitch in his study every Tuesday, just as they used to back in college.
